We have used the inn-sitting services of Bob & Barb Vokac three times so far. They are a trustworthy, honest and lovely couple and I feel quite confident leaving our Bed & Breakfast in their capable hands while we are on vacation. I can totally relax knowing that they can handle everything.

Bob does a great job in the kitchen when it comes to breakfast. He loves to cook and has taken courses to enhance his knowledge. My guests have left wonderful comments about breakfast and their friendly personalities. That is the most important part, the interaction with our overnight guests and they are terrific. Bob also has the skills required for the office work and my reservation system.

I would highly recommend their services.

Thank you Bob & Barb for allowing us to have a break.
